SENATE RESOLUTION F16-03 SENATE MEETING September 26, 2016

TITLE: Establishing a Records Fee

WHEREAS: The office of Registrar office, in coordination with students, has proposed new fee, and

WHEREAS: This fee will replace charges for incidental academic transcript fee ($16.00 per item), class add/drop fee ($12.00 per incident) and the graduation fee ($75.00), and

WHEREAS: The records fee would be one-time fee of $130.00 for a degree seeking student and $50.00 for a non-degree seeking student at matriculation, and

WHEREAS: The records fee eliminates the afore mentioned fees assessed as they work towards graduation and seeking careers, while saving time and money from currently existing administrative processes right around the graduation period by requesting each transactions individually, be it therefore,

RESOLVED: The Graduate and Professional Students Senate supports the request from the Registrar to implement the records fee of $130.00 for each degree-seeking student and $50.00 for each non-degree student, and be it further,

RESOLVED: The copy of this resolution be sent to President Steven Leath, Senior Vice President of Students Affairs Martino Harmon, Provost Jonathan Wickert, Dean of Graduate College David Holger, Registrar Laura Doering and members of Special Students Fees and Tuition Committee.
