TITLE: Creating new contracted positions of Senate leadership: Social Media Chair

WHEREAS: The Senate is looking to improve its social media presence, allowing for more information dissemination to be delivered in an accessible format to graduate students,

WHEREAS: Social media is an opportunity to increase interactions with other organizations, departments, and other Universities,

WHEREAS: This position can better advertise events for the GPSS, and for other graduate-student relevant events on campus,

WHEREAS: A contracted position can allow more flexibility, being an interim approach with an evaluation component, before adopting a position into the Constitution,

ENACTED: That the 2021-2022 Senate create one position to be designated as Social Media Chair,

ENACTED: That the Social Media Chair directly reports to the Senate Information Officer, working closely with this individual to ensure accuracy of information,

ENACTED: That there be an evaluation of the successes/failures/areas of needed improvement at the end of the fall semester by Executive Council, to determine if this will be adopted into the Constitution for future Senates,

ENACTED: That the Social Media Chair be a non-essential election (i.e. if no one runs for this position, it may remain unfilled and Senate may adjourn),

ENACTED: That a call for this position be released during the regular GPSS elections (March meeting), and follow all appropriate election procedures and regulations therein,

ENACTED: That this position receive a financial scholarship of $200; with $100 to be disbursed in the fall semester, and $100 to be disbursed in the spring semester,
Sponsors:

Eleanor Field, President

Carrie Ann Johnson, Chair of the Senate